

Alexandria Gazette

TUESDAY EVENING, AUG. 7, 1906.

Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 5:05 a. m. and sets at 7:05 p. m. High water at 10:17 a. m. and 10:41 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section local rain and slightly cooler tonight and Wednesday; winds mostly light from south.

Death of Mr. Moore.

Mr. William A. Moore, an old, well-known and esteemed citizen, died at his home on Prince street, near Royal, this morning. The deceased was in his 80th year. Mr. Moore was born in New York State, but moved to Virginia in early life, making his residence in Fairfax county. He later became a resident of Alexandria, where he had lived for nearly half a century. For many years he was engaged in the grain and commission business in this city. About twenty years ago he was a member of the Board of Aldermen from the first ward. A short time ago he was appointed Deputy Sergeant of this city, and was later elected a Justice of the Peace from the Second ward. Mr. Moore was a Past Master of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons and was a member of Mount Vernon Royal Arch Chapter and of Old Dominion Commandery of Knights Templar. Of late years he had been ill from the effects of a stroke. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and throughout life he had been an earnest and consistent Christian. He leaves a widow and several children. Mr. Moore had enjoyed good health up to a few weeks ago when he began to weaken from what was supposed to have been an ordinary indisposition. It refused to yield to treatment, however, and complications followed which soon made his condition serious, so much so that his death was seen to be inevitable.

Miss Lee at Atlantic City.

Miss Mary Curtis Lee is spending some time at the Dennis, Atlantic City. The correspondent from that place to the Philadelphia Inquirer says: "Miss Lee has forsaken the romantic surroundings of her beautiful Virginia home to gain strength by the sea. Thousands of southern visitors pay reverence to the daughter of the military genius of the 'Lost Cause,' and the distinguished southern woman is pointed out as she enjoys frequent roller chair outings with more interest than attaches to the occasional masculine celebrity to be found here. The fact that the South contributes generously to the prosperity of the resort is evidenced nightly on the piers when in the course of every popular medley the bands reach Dixie. The catchy air means an instant outburst of applause whenever or wherever played in the South, and visitors from Dixie feel at home in the crowds nowadays when the bands begin to play the old, familiar strains. The sentiment, always present, has been quickened because of the fact that Mary C. Lee, first in the hearts of southern people since the death of 'Winnie Davis' is in Atlantic City."

The Torrid Wave.

The sultry temperature of yesterday and last night caused general discomfort, but no fatalities resulted hereabouts. One resident was overcome by the heat but he soon revived. Washington was a veritable bake oven during most of yesterday. The mercury is said to have reached 103° in the afternoon. An experiment was made about 3 o'clock of placing the thermometer in the sun and it then registered 114, showing what temperature the horses and the pedestrians who were walking in the sun had to stand. The wide avenues and streets paved with asphalt yielded to the hot rays of the sun and yesterday the asphalt was soft and persons walking on it felt it yield under them, leaving distinct footprints in the streets. The Weather Bureau holds out little prospect of relief for a day or two at least.

Gives Virginia Jurisdiction.

United States Commissioner Anson S. Taylor decided yesterday afternoon that the recent alleged mutiny on board the Colonial Beach steamer St. John while she was lying at Colonial Beach, occurred within the jurisdiction of the State of Virginia, and that those involved in the affair must await the action of the grand jury of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia at Richmond. The men involved in the affair were Henry Williams, James Kelson and Henry Smoot, three negro firemen, and Robert Alexander, a negro stevedore. The four men were arrested August 1 and were held pending a hearing before Commissioner Taylor. They were given a preliminary trial on the charge of violating Section 5359 of the United States Revised Statutes.

Death of an Old Resident.

Captain Enoch Davis, a well-known resident of this city, died at the home of his sister, on Potomac street, between Lee and Union, at four o'clock this morning. He leaves one son. The deceased was about 65 years old. Capt. Davis was a waterman by occupation, and for many years was master of the sloop B. H. Lambert, which ran on the Potomac. He was paralyzed a few years ago, since which time his health had gradually declined. The deceased had been a cripple almost since infancy, having been unable to walk, and when a boy was pulled through the city in a small wagon drawn by a white dog. He was one of a large family which moved to Alexandria from Charles county, Md., over half a century ago.

Hurt in a Runaway.

There was a runaway accident on Duke street, between Lee and Union, about ten o'clock this morning, which resulted in the serious injury of a colored woman named Edith Sheppard and her daughter Alice. They had come to the city from Fairfax county in a carriage, and while on Duke street the horse attached to the vehicle was frightened by two dogs and ran away. The occupants were thrown out, the mother's arm broken and her daughter painfully injured. The ambulance was summoned and they were both taken to the Alexandria Hospital where they received surgical aid. The horse was stopped by a colored man before the wagon had been materially damaged.

Big Shows Coming.

Jones' enormous shows, which will exhibit in Alexandria on the 13th instant, show includes not only the best obtainable circus features but also a complete menagerie, hippodrome and Wild West frontier exhibition. Anita Peasley in her death-defying leap the loop, the famous Lorenz troupe of eight European acrobats, the flying Cotter family, the two Arnolds, aerialists and acrobats, the Peasleys from the Hippodrome; the Delzars, double revolving ladders; Brooks, Hardell and Brooks, ladder bar experts, and one hundred other great feature acts are among the attractions of the shows. The coterie of funny clowns is headed by the world famous John Gagner and Silvers Oakmont. The Wild West and frontier exhibition, which is given in conjunction with the circus performance, includes a genuine tribe of Sioux Indians and cowboys, cowgirls, scouts and Rough Riders, headed by the King of the Cowboys, Riley Starr. The menagerie contains cages of rare and wild animals from the most remote parts of the globe and the educated animal exposition includes trained elephants from the Hippodrome, trained horses, ponies, dogs and monkeys, and trained wild lions, tigers, leopards and hyenas. The entire enormous shows will exhibit under one great cloud of canvas and for one price of admission and two performances will be given at 2 and 8 p. m.

Fined Fifty Dollars Each.

Rosa Moore, alias Ross Roberts, was arrested about twelve o'clock last night by Officers Bell, Henderson and Jones charged with selling lager beer without a license. The officers were passing at the time and saw two young men in the front room drinking beer. They took them in charge as witnesses, and the case came up in the Police Court this morning, when the Moore woman asserted that she did not sell the beer, that the house was in charge of a woman named Mattie O'Berry and that the accused collected the money and gave it to the proprietress. The O'Berry woman testified to the same effect. Justice Caton fined them $50 each.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Rosa Moore, alias Roberts, and Mattie O'Berry, arrested by Officers Bell, Henderson and Jones charged with selling lager beer without a license, were fined $50 each.

George Griffin and John Mumford, arrested by Officers Henderson and Jones charged with vagrancy, were fined $5 each.

Ollie Sykes and Rose Cooper, arrested by Officers Jones and Henderson for assaulting Hazel Davis, were fined $5 each.

Enforcing the Vagrant Act. Officers Henderson and Jones last night arrested two young men, George Griffin and John Mumford, under the vagrant act. The officers testified in the Police Court this morning that the accused spent most of their time on North Lee street, that they were taken from a house in that section and that they did not work. Justice Caton fined them $5 each, which they failed to pay and they were locked up. The two young men arrested last week under the vagrant act have been enrolled as members of the chain gang.

Striking Brakemen.

The running of freight trains on the Southern Railway was interrupted for a time yesterday by dissatisfaction among the brakemen, caused, it is said, by long hours, and an order which was regarded by the men as a hardship. According to the new regulation the brakemen are required to ride on top of cars instead of inside the cabooses, as formerly. The brakemen objected to this, especially in rainy weather. The trouble was adjusted to the satisfaction of all concerned, and trains today were running as usual.

After the Dogs.

The announcement made yesterday to the effect that the police were making a movement on unlicensed dogs was read with satisfaction by many people, especially those whose business carries them to all parts of the city. At night many curs, most of them without owners, roam the streets, fight and bark at the moon, which with the prevailing heat render sleep in some neighborhoods impossible. In the day time they scare horses and occasionally bite passersby.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mabel I. Brenner, who died at the Alexandria Hospital early last Sunday morning, will take place at 5:30 o'clock this evening from the residence of her father, Mr. G. E. Markell, on Wolfe street, near Fairfax. The services will be conducted by Rev. W. H. T. Squires, of Tennessee, and the pallbearers will be Messrs. Thomas Dyeon, P. F. Murphy, George B. Kennedy, F. L. Slaymaker, Charles Tenneson and Malcom A. Brenner.

Accidents.

Mr. Carley Wood, while painting the interior of a house at the corner of Gibson and Pitt streets, yesterday, fell through a trap door and was painfully bruised.

Mr. George Wood, while at work at the shipyard yesterday, had his head seriously cut by coming in contact with a spike which was protruding from the side of a vessel on the ways.

New Freight Depot.

The Washington-Southern Railway Company will open their new freight station at the union depot, adjoining this city on the west, on next Thursday morning, August 9, at which point all local freight will be delivered and received. The present depot in the square bounded by Cameron, Queen, Henry and Fayette streets, will be abandoned tomorrow night.

Watches Lost.

Harvey Robinson reported to the police this morning that he had lost a gold watch in a public house last night. John Henderson later reported that he had lost a gold watch in a public house this morning.

Change of Freight Depot.

On Thursday, August 9, 1906, the local freight depot of the Washington-Southern Railway will be transferred from Cameron and Fayette streets, Alexandria, to the new building at the union depot, adjoining Alexandria on the west. The present depot will be closed on Wednesday night, August 8, after which time all local freight will be received at and delivered from the new depot. Bell telephone No. 278; Capital City No. 33. Aug 7

Luna Park Attractions.

The largest Sunday night crowd of the present season was at Luna Park August 5th to welcome back to the big pleasure resort the Navassars Ladies' Band. The band is offering several features this trip, among which are Miss Louise Campbell, vocal soloist, and the "Anvil Chorus." Both are pleasing features and have made a great impression during the concerts of this week. Mr. Hans Line, former director of the Navassars, has retired from that position and his place has been taken by Mrs. Augusta Dial, a noted lady conductor. The number of the band has been increased to fifty pieces in addition to the leader and soloist. Their concerts are given each afternoon and evening. Rag-time concerts are given each Friday afternoon and evening and on Sunday a special sacred concert is offered. The Luna Park management announces for the week of August 12th the noted Ralph Johnstone, bicycle expert from the New York Hippodrome, and who has been declared the greatest performer on the moving wheel in the world. His greatest feat is that of turning backward and forward somersaults on the bicycle. It is said that he can jump a distance of twenty feet from a standing location, and portions of his act will take place far above the heads of the audience. The Park will have several large outings during the month of August, those scheduled for next week being Lansburgh & Brother's Department Store employees on August 7th; the Catholic Women's Benevolent Legion, August 9th and an outing of the Navy Yard machinists August 11th. Among the interesting announcements for the outdoor free act is the coming of Barlow's elephants, a herd of highly trained beasts. It is said that the little children will be allowed to ride around the Park grounds on the back of the big elephant "Heracles." Eight new attractions have been added to the other amusements along "The Trail," making Luna Park now the greatest amusement resort west of famous Coney Island, New York.

About Those Peaches.

Saturday's supply, 9 bushels, gave out long before closing time. We had counted on selling lots of those peaches when you had found out how good they were. Tomorrow morning we'll have a bigger consignment here for your refreshment from the orchards; the same orchards that our last week's peaches came from. The same big, sound, well-ripened, luscious kind of peaches—ideal for canning. Get busy.

Going to have some "Dumplings" too, and everything obtainable in the fruit and vegetable kingdom.
